

A RESOLUTION to honor Dr. Carole Hardeman and the Human Relations Symposium in Memphis, Tennessee.

WHEREAS, for many years human relations has been an issue of utmost importance across the world, particularly in America; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Carole Hall Hardeman has utilized her many skills and talents to set in motion a Human Relations Symposium in an effort to eliminate stereotypes for the betterment and growth of the community; and

WHEREAS, as Vice President for Research and Sponsored Programs at LeMoyne-Owen College in Memphis, Tennessee, Dr. Hardeman understands the importance of quality of life issues and how they are affected by human relations, and;

WHEREAS, The Human Relations Symposium will directly address human relations issues that will increase the people's ability to prosper by employing Abraham Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs Model. In addition, the symposium will provide essentials for positive productive change in industry, education, labor relations, health care and police and community relations; and

WHEREAS, in a time of unrest due to intolerance and disrespect, the Human Relations Symposium will supply the very methods for which society may overcome these enormous obstacles; and

WHEREAS, the 1995 Human Relations Symposium, funded by the City of Memphis directed by LeMoyne-Owen College, will commence March 13-14 at the Crown Plaza Hotel and the Memphis Convention Center; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Hardeman has impressively acquired the support of many businesses, educators and elected officials; and

WHEREAS, this outstanding effort will most assuredly be noted as an initiative directed toward progress and prosperity; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly finds it appropriate to recognize those endeavors that seek to improve the relations among people; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That we hereby commend Dr. Carole Hall Hardeman for her diligence in implementing and directing The Human Relations Symposium.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
